NOTIFICATION

In pursuance of clause (a) of Section 366 of the City of Bangalore Municipal Corporation Act, 1949 (Mysore Act No LXIX of 1949) the draft of the following rules which it is proposed to make under Section 68 of the said Act, is hereby published:-

DRAFT NOTIFICATION

In exercise of the powers conferred by Section 68 of the City of Bangalore Municipal Corporation Act, 1949 (Mysore Act No LXIX of 1949) and in supersession of Order issued under Notification No L 5321-C N 49-49-4 dated the 2nd December 1949, the Government of Mysore are pleased to make the following rules

(1) Regulating the procedure for the election of the Mayor or the Deputy Mayor,
(2) The election of Members of Standing Committees and
(3) The election of Chairmen of Standing Committees.

DRAFT RULES

1 ~~RULES FOR THE ELECTION~~ OF THE MAYOR OR THE ~~DEPUTY MAYOR OF THE CORPORATION~~

2 At a meeting of the Corporation held for the purpose of election of the Mayor or Deputy Mayor any councillor may nominate another councillor for election by delivering to the person presiding at the meeting a nomination paper signed by himself as proposer and a third councillor as seconder and stating (a) the name of the councillor nominated and (b) that the proposer has ascertained that such councillor is willing to serve as Mayor or Deputy Mayor as the case may be if elected The names of all the candidates proposed and seconded shall be read out by the person presiding at the meeting and the votes of the councillors present at the meeting shall then be taken by ballot The Commissioner shall make adequate arrangements for securing the privacy of the ballot

3 Every councillor wishing to vote shall be supplied with a voting paper on which the names of all the candidates shall be printed cyclostyled or typed in the following form in the alphabetical order

(3)

NB Place a 'x' mark against one name only.

1 These Rules may be called the Bangalore Corporation (Election of the Mayor and Deputy Mayor) Rules. 1952

Each councillor shall then proceed to the place set apart for the purpose and there place a cross mark against the name of the candidate for whom he wishes to vote He shall then fold up the voting paper so as to conceal his vote and deposit the same in a ballot box The ballot box shall be so constructed that the voting paper may be placed therein but not extracted therefrom without the box being opened The person presiding at the meeting shall then open the box and count the votes in the presence of the councillors and declare the result of the election

4 If there is only one duly nominated candidate no ballot shall be necessary and he shall be considered to have been elected, provided that the proposal is carried by a resolution of the corporation at the same meeting If no such resolution is passed a fresh election hall be held forthwith in accordance with these rules

5 (1) If there are two candidates the one who secures the larger number of votes shall be declared to have been elected If there is an equality of votes between the two candidates, the person presiding at the meeting shall draw lots in the presence of the councillors and the person whose name is first drawn shall be declared to have been elected

(2) If there are more than two candidates the one who obtains the smallest number of votes shall be eliminated and the votes taken again If there is any equality of votes among all the candidates or if two or more candidates last in the list have obtained an equal number of votes, a ballot shall be taken in order to decide which of them shall be eliminated If at such ballot there is an equality of votes a further ballot shall be taken and if this further ballot is also indecisive the person presiding at the meeting shall ascertain by drawing lots in the presence of the councillors which of the candidates shall be considered to have been eliminated The elimination shall be repeated until two candidates only are left, when votes shall be taken for the last time and the candidate who secures the larger number of votes shall be considered to have been elected If there is an equality of votes at the final stages between the two remaining candidates the person presiding at the meeting shall draw lots in the presence of the councillors and the person whose name is first drawn shall be declared to have been elected

6 No candidate shall take part in a ballot, but a candidate may withdraw at any stage and after such withdrawal, he may take part in any ballot Similarly, a candidate who has been eliminated at any stage under sub rule (2) of rule 4 may take part in any ballot at subsequent stages

7 Any voting paper which contains the signature or writing of any of the voting councillors or on which a cross mark is made against more than one name shall be invalid

RULES FOR THE ELECTION OF MEMBERS OF STANDING COMMITTEES

1 A separate election shall be held for each Standing Committee If elections be held at the same meeting of the Corporation to fill up vacancies on more than one Standing Committee the order in which the elections are held shall follow the order in which the standing Committees are mentioned in Section 6 of the Act If however the election to any Standing Committee is adjourned under rule 5 the elections for the Standing Committe next in order shall be proceeded with

2 The meeting for the election of members of any Standing Committee or Committees shall be presided over by the Mayor the Deputy Mayor or in the absence of both the Mayor and Deputy Mayor by a Councillor not intending to stand as a candidate at the election or any of the elections as the case may be chosen by the members present at the meeting to preside for the occasion

3 Every candidate for election shall be proposed by a councillor and seconded by another councillor A candidate who has been proposed and seconded may withdraw his candidature by making a statement to that effect at the meeting of the corporation The names of all the candidates who have been proposed and seconded and who have not withdrawn their candidature shall be read out by the person presiding (Mayor the Deputy Mayor or the presiding councillor)

4 If the number of candidates whose names are so read out is equal to the number of vacancies the person presiding at the meeting shall declare all such candidates as duly elected

5 If the number of such candidates is less than the number of vacancies (the Mayor the Deputy Mayor or the presiding councillor) the person presiding shall declare all such candidates duly elected and shall either call for fresh nominations or adjourn the election to fill up the remaining vacancy or vacancies to the next meeting of the Corporation

L.H.S.26/Cr.34-56.3 NOTIFICATION 9th June 1956

The draft of the following rules, which the Government of Mysore propose to make, in exercise of the powers conferred by section 68 read with Section 366 of the City of Bangalore Municipal Corporation Act, 1949 (Mysore Act LXIX of 1949) and in supersession of the order issued in Notification No.L.8521/CM. 49-49-4 dated 2nd December 19 X is hereby published as required by Section 366 of the said Act.

1. These rules may be called the Bangalore Corporation (Election of Members of Standing Committees) Rules, 1956.

2. A separate election shall be held for each Standing Committee. If elections be held at the same meeting of the Corporation to fill up vacancies on more than one Standing Committee, the order in which the elections are held shall follow the order in which the Standing Committees are mentioned in Section 6 of the Act. If, however, the election to any Standing Committee is adjourned under rule 6, the elections for the Standing Committee next in order shall be proceeded with.

3. The meeting for the election of members of any Standing Committee or Committees shall be presided over by the Mayor, the Deputy Mayor or in the absence of both the Mayor and Deputy Mayor by a Councillor not intending to stand as a Candidate at the election, or any of the elections, as the case may be, chosen by the members present at the meeting to preside for the occasion.

4. Every candidate for election shall be proposed by a councillor and seconded by another councillor A candidate who has been proposed and seconded may withdraw his candidature by making a statement to that effect at the meeting of the Corporation The names of all the candidates who have been proposed and recorded and who have not withdrawn their candidature, shall be read out by the person presiding

5. If the number of candidates whose names are so read out is equal to the number of vacancies, the person presiding at the meeting shall declare all such candidates as duly elected.

6. If the number of such candidates is less than the number of vacancies, the person presiding shall declare all such candidates duly elected and shall either call for fresh nominations or adjourn the election to fill up the remaining vacancy or vacancyes to the next meeting of the Corporation

7. If the number of such candidates exceeds the number of vacancies, the votes of the councillors present at the meeting shall be taken by ballot. The Commissioner shall make adequate arrangements to secure the privacy of the ballot.

8. Every Councillor wishing to vote shall be supplied with a voting paper on which the names of all such candidates shall be typed, rota-printed or stencilled in the following form in the alphabetical order:-

Each Councillor shall then proceed to the place set apart for the purpose and there place a cross mark against the name of the candidate or the names of the candidates for whom he wishes to vote. He shall then fold up the voting paper so as to conceal his vote and deposit the same in a ballot box placed in the view of the person presiding at the meeting. The ballot box shall be constructed that the voting paper may be placed therein but not extracted therefrom without the box being opened. The person presiding at the meeting shall then open the box and count the votes in the presence of two councillors (other than candidates) who shall be nominated tellers by the person presiding.

9. The candidate who obtains the largest number of votes or if there is more than one vacancy, as many of the candidates at the top of the poll as there are vacancies to be filled, shall be declared to have been duly elected. If there be any equality of votes between any two or more of such candidates which will entitle him or them to be declared duly elected, the person presiding at the meeting shall decide by drawing lots in the presence of the councillors to which one or more addition 1 vote to any one or more of such candidates of such candidates such additional vote shall be deemed to have been given.

10 Councillors who have been duly proposed and seconded as candidates may also take part in the ballot
